GUEST LECTURE & HANDS-ON WORKSHOP ORGANISED BY DEPT.
OF PHARM.D ON

MANUSCRIPT WRITING FOR PUBLICATION

The workshop conducted on 9th February 2024 from 11am to 5pm at PES's Modern College of Pharmacy in Nigdi, Pune, was a significant event aimed at enhancing the skills of Pharm. D students in manuscript writing for journal publication. Led by Dr. Bijoy Kumar Panda, an esteemed Associate Professor from Krishna Institute of Pharmacy, Krishna Vishwa Vidyapeeth, the session provided a comprehensive insight into the intricacies of crafting effective research manuscripts. The session started with a welcome speech and introductions by fourth year PharmD student, Ms. Tanvi Madane.

Throughout the workshop, Dr. Panda shared invaluable knowledge and expertise, guiding the Sixth- and Fifth-year Pharm. D students through various essential aspects of manuscript writing. His detailed explanations encompassed crucial topics such as the efficient design of methodology, adhering to the IMRD (Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion) structure, sourcing and citing relevant literature, understanding submission guidelines, and addressing key aspects of research papers.

Dr. Panda stated the importance of adding clear and brief tables about the results of the performed study, arrangement of recommendations in order & argument / hypothesis or fact being conveyed from the study. He shared his expertise and insights on various important steps such as shortlisting reputed journals and format accordingly to avoid further work, stating clearer study design for better understanding of the reviewer, application of proper statistics to reflect importance of study, use of active voice in case medical abbreviation is needed. He further stated the importance of referring reputed journals, proper citations according to journal's guidelines, checking plagiarism as it will state that the written content is simply copied. He finally advised students about checking aspects of formatting, grammar, styling etc. before final submission of manuscript.

What set this workshop apart was Dr. Panda's personalized approach, as he engaged in one-on-one interactions with each project group. Individual attention allowed for a deeper understanding of the students' specific research projects and enabled tailored guidance on overcoming challenges and refining their manuscripts.

Furthermore, Dr. Panda's insights on navigating the peer review process, handling rejection, and implementing revisions were invaluable lessons for the aspiring researchers. By shedding light on these often-daunting aspects of academic publishing, he empowered the students with the knowledge and confidence to persevere and improve their work.

The success of the workshop was also attributable to the efficient organization and facilitation by the Guest Lecture Cell, with guidance from the Guest Lecture Coordinator and support from the faculty members of the Pharm. D Department. Their collaborative efforts ensured that the event ran smoothly and maximized the learning outcomes for the participating students.

Overall, the workshop served as a pivotal platform for equipping Pharm. D students with the essential skills and knowledge required to excel in academic research and publication. It not only enhanced their understanding of manuscript writing but also instilled in them the resilience and determination needed to navigate the competitive world of scholarly publishing. Such initiatives are instrumental in fostering a culture of academic excellence and innovation within the academic community.

The workshop was concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Pushkar Panchabhai, Fourth year PharmD student and felicitation by Dr. Sunita Pawar (HOD - Clinical Pharmacy Dept., MCOP, Nigdi) in presence of assistant professors Dr. Anjali Kumbhar, Dr. Mayuri Khaparde, Dr. Sanket Harimkar, Dr. Rajani Mali, Dr. Anamika Bhoyar, Dr. Akanksha Patil etc. Feedback from the attendees was taken and the event was well executed by guest lecture cell coordinators Dr. Anjali Kumbhar & Dr. Sanket Harimkar along with the volunteers - Pushkar Panchabhai, Harsh Wadekar, Amey Zarekar, Azmat Sayyed, Pratik Jagtap, Prerana Kulkarni, Sayali Motghare, Shruti Moharkar, Anvay Shastri & Tanvi Madan
